DO NOT RETURN THIS UNLESS YOU ANSWERED 'YES' TO QUESTION 7 AND HAVE PFRS

Definitions:

A professional fundraiser (PFR) is anyone who "plans, conducts, manages, or carries on a drive or campaign of soliciting contributions for or on behalf of a charitable organization." You do not have to report consulting contracts.

Employees of a charitable organization are PFRs if they are paid wholly or in part by commissions – including bonuses – based on funds raised.

Consultants - To qualify as a consultant, all the following conditions must be met:

- the PFR is usually retained by a charitable or religious organization for a fixed fee or rate that is not computed based on funds raised or to be raised.
- the PFR does not solicit funds, assets, or property, but only plans, advises, consults, or prepares materials for a solicitation or fundraising event in Michigan.
- the PFR does not receive, or control funds, assets, or property solicited in Michigan; and the PFR does not employ, procure, or engage any compensated person to solicit, receive, or control funds, assets, or property.

PFR Contract

You are required to provide copies of contracts with PFRs within 10 days of signing a new contract or extending an existing contract. If you are unsure if the services provided by a person or firm you contracted with are such that a PFR license is required, provide a copy of the contract with your renewal form and request to have the contract reviewed. You will be notified if you must complete this attachment, and if the contractor should be licensed as a PFR. NOTE: Michigan law requires that you verify that any PFR with which you contract for fundraising in Michigan is currently licensed with this office.

Campaign Financial Statements

Form CTS-10, are required for all campaigns conducted by a PFR with which you have contracted. The Campaign Financial Statement will be filed by the PFR, but you will be required to provide additional campaign expense information and sign the form.

PFR Chart

Sum of all payments to/retained by PFR during the year reported. Include all fees, reimbursements, or other payments to the PFR that were related to the campaign conducted by the PFR for the organization. Any monies that were retained by the professional fundraiser before remitting the proceeds of a campaign or activity to the charity must also be included here. If the PFR listed was engaged after the close of the fiscal year reported in Item 10, enter "N/A" in this column.
